Subject: Microsoft Settlement

I do not believe that the Proposed Final Judgement in the Microsoft Anti-trust case will affect their current monopoly in the software industry.

The DOJ's settlement was brokered by Bush administration appointee Assistant Attorney General Charles A. James, head of the DOJ's antitrust division. But career officials at the Justice Department, who had pursued the case since the beginning, displayed their apparent displeasure with the agreement by not signing it.

This is just one example of many things that I believe are wrong in this case.

Sincerely,
